

FOREVER IN OUR HEARTS

*You are the love of my life, my best friend, my husband, my favorite person. You smothered our son in hugs and kisses and loved and protected us obsessively. We will love you forever and never wanted to face this world without you.
I'll see you again in glory.*

Your Loving Wife & Son, Christi and Xander

Celebration of Life

Christopher D. Sabb, son of Melvin Sabb, III and Cynthia Thomas, was born on December 27, 1990, in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life suddenly on June 27, 2020.

He received his early education in the Baltimore City Public School System and received his high school diploma from Dallastown Area School. He attended Lackawanna Junior College and Indiana University of Pennsylvania where he studied Criminology and recently returned to pursue a degree in Education at Liberty University. Christopher was a natural salesman. He could literally sell ice to Eskimos. He was employed by several major companies such as Verizon, Comcast Business and Solar Momentum.

On February 26, 2011, he met the love of his life, Christi Smith, and wed on September 3, 2016. On September 22, 2017, they welcomed their first child, Xander Lee Sabb.

Chris was a dedicated and avid sports fanatic. He knew everything about all sports all the time. Since the age of 4, he was an excellent football player, as well as a die-hard fan. He played both the Pop Warner Football and Unlimited Football Leagues until high school. During his high school career, Christopher lettered in several sports including football, weightlifting, and wrestling. He won several awards including: The New Oxford Lineman's Challenge for weightlifting, The New Oxford Lineman's Rope Pull Challenge; and 1st Place 2007 Dallastown JV Wrestling Championship and many more. Chris continued his love for football at Lackawanna Junior College, where he was the youngest player to start in 2008 NJCAA North Star Bowl Game. His favorite team was the Baltimore Ravens.

The favorite part of Chris' day was spending time with his wife, Christi and son Xander. He absolutely loved being a husband and father. One of his favorite nightly rituals was playing with Xander before bed every night, and giving Xander "daddy kisses." Chris had an extremely close relationship with his mother. He enjoyed speaking to her multiple times a day just to shoot the breeze. Chris was a natural comedian. He could find humor in everything. His jokes were legendary! He made friends wherever he went and was always the life of the party. Chris could always put a smile on everyone's face. He will truly be missed by everyone who knew him.

He leaves to mourn: his wife, Christi; son, Xander; mother, Cynthia; father, Melvin III; stepfather, William; brother, Marquis; stepbrother, Lakeem; stepsisters, Jer'Naizisha and Makala; grandmothers, Elizabeth and Selester; grandfather, Melvin Jr.; aunts, Sandra and Melvina; nephew, Tyree Jr. and Lakeem Jr.; niece, Morgan; mother-in-law, Cheryl; father-in-law, Arthur; sister-in-law, Jessica (Cody); grandmother-in-law, Judith; 7 great-aunts; 4 great-uncles; and a host of cousins and friends.

A Message for My Son

Christopher, I wish I could wake up and see you standing there. Then I would know that it was just a nightmare. Son, I remember when you were small and how you would hold my hand, And as you grew older you became a great man. Chris, I have 29 years of memories that I will treasure and keep safe in my heart. We share a bond that time and distance can never break apart. Son, oh how my heart aches so. I would love to have you back and never let you go. Chris, how I long to hear your voice and see your beautiful smile and have you back for just a little while. It broke my heart to lose you. You did not go alone. For part of me went with you the day God called you home. Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same. But as God calls us, one by one, the chain will link again.

*Love
Mammy*
